There is a new PE instructor: Coach Justin. PSC is currently matching up volunteers with direct tasks, and that process is going well. Nov 21 is Staff Appreciation luncheon with a “thankful” theme. Yard duty was addressed with a new revised playground agreement, and a copy was placed on yard duty lanyards for easy access and to help reinforce playground rules. Split recess schedule working out.

c. Financials
Review of financials as of October. Next month Dena Koren from EdTec will join us. Board expressed that they would like to take a deeper dive into the budget to make sure that the budget accurately reflects our program. We have cut back a little from the new budget, but would like to do some fine tuning in November.

d. Superintendent/Phoenix Campus Director Report
Ms. Perry reported that October 17 both campuses held a “Great America Shakeout”. County Credential Audit and site visit for both schools was completed. All went well. Staff members participated in geocache teambuilding activities. November 18 is target for surveys to go out to both schools - parents, students, and staff. Some of the survey results will be applied to LCAPs.

October 21 Phoenix campus held a successful Fall Festival. This Friday Nov. 1st – 8:45am there will be a “Dance for Kindness” event. Fencing and electronic gate causing some issues and they are working on some solutions. New playground structure should be in by end of November. There was an apartment complex fire on Anderson’s side, Debby called Moreland to offer some community service/donations for the affected families.
